

All Staff Meeting

January 21, 2020

OUR MISSION

eHealth Technologies provides seamless access to healthcare information, enabling caregivers to focus on what matters most—patients.

OUR VISION

Advance the delivery of life-altering care.

OUR VALUES

- Guide how we work.
- Describe the way we treat one another.
- Capture the behaviors we aspire to.
- Help us hire employees who fit our culture.

We Value

Integrity

We believe that nothing is more important than our reputation as an honest, ethical company with a deep commitment to safeguard the health information entrusted to us.

2

We Value

Customer Care

We are passionate about the critically important work we do for our customers and their patients, driving us to exceed their expectations, needs, and timelines.

We Value

Our People

We share a responsibility to provide an honest, caring, encouraging, and inclusive environment based on mutual trust and respect for all who work here.

We Value

Results

We embrace a culture of continuous improvement and faithfully meet all commitments to our fellow team members and the company.

We Value

Collaboration

Open and active communication guides the way we work. Differing viewpoints are encouraged. In the end, alignment and teamwork drives our success.

We Value

Integrity. We believe that nothing is more important than our reputation as an honest, ethical company with a deep commitment to safeguard the health information entrusted to us.

Customer Care. We are passionate about the critically important work we do for our customers and their patients, driving us to exceed their expectations, needs, and timelines.

Our People. We share a responsibility to provide an honest, caring, encouraging, and inclusive environment based on mutual trust and respect for all who work here.

Results. We embrace a culture of continuous improvement and faithfully meet all commitments to our fellow team members and the company.

Collaboration. Open and active communication guides the way we work. Differing viewpoints are encouraged. In the end, alignment and teamwork drives our success.